Robert T. Morris, MD
Professor and Director, Division of Gynecologic Oncology
Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Wayne State University School of Medicine
Karmanos Cancer Institute
Detroit, MI

November 19, 2019
8:00 AM

“Minimally Invasive Surgery in Cervical Cancer”

Learning Objectives:
1. To understand the role of surgery in the management of cervical cancer.
2. To understand the recent literature on minimally invasive surgery in cervical cancer.
3. To provide objective evidence to improve clinical management of patients with cervical cancer.

Commercial Relationship Disclosure: Speaker has financial relationships on the Speaker’s Bureau for the following companies: Tesaro, Astra Zeneca, Clovis.